

Mud Logging Analyst - Multiple Opportunities

Brunel Australasia is seeking to hire qualified and experienced candidates to fill 20+ experienced Mud Logging Analyst roles across WA, working on various projects with a leading Oilfield Services company.

- Leading Global Oil Field Services Company
- Offshore positions available on FIFO roster
- 20+ vacancies available

Summary

- Publication: PUB297253
- Market: OilGasAndMining
- Industry: Oil & Gas
- Area of expertise: Drilling, Completions & Geosciences
- Hours per week: 84
- Education level: Secondary School
- Closing date: Sunday, 18 April 2021

Job

- Perform Service
- Prepare Field Deliverables
- Remove and Secure Resources
- Deploy and Position Resources
- Prepare Resources
- Verify Resources
- Capture Field Data
- Obtain Customer Acceptance of Delivery
- Evaluate and Reconcile Resources
- Implement Risk Response
- Prepare Final Job Deliverables
- Deliver and Archive Final Job Deliverables
- Prepare Job Invoice Supporting Documentation
- Verify and Prepare Resources at Product Line Location
- Ensure job deliverables are accurate and delivered on time.
- Monitor, record, and process well data and parameters, ensuring the integrity and reliability of well data.
- Compile the End of Well Report, ad hoc reports requested by customers, and daily reports.
- Interact with personnel and customer representatives from other service companies professionally at the wellsite.
- Maintain confidentiality of customer well data.
- Identify opportunities to improve the service delivery process.
- Participate in job risk analysis and continual improvement programs.

About you

- Field experience
- PSD experience
- Operations Integrity

What we offer

Feel free to contact

Simone Bache
Account manager
Brunel Energy Australia Perth
s.bache@brunel.net