

Data Analyst

Summary

- Publication: PUB297254
- Market: OilGasAndMining
- Industry: Oil & Gas
- Area of expertise: Project Management & Services
- Hours per week: 84
- Education level: Other
- Closing date: Sunday, 18 April 2021

Job

- Perform Service
- Prepare Field Deliverables
- Remove and Secure Resources
- Deploy and Position Resources
- Prepare Resources
- Verify Resources

- Capture Field Data
- Obtain Customer Acceptance of Delivery
- Evaluate and Reconcile Resources
- Implement Risk Response
- Prepare Final Job Deliverables
- Deliver and Archive Final Job Deliverables
- Prepare Job Invoice Supporting Documentation
- Verify and Prepare Resources at Product Line Location

Additional Responsibilities of the role:

- Ensure job deliverables are accurate and delivered on time
- Monitor, record, and process well data and parameters, ensuring the integrity and reliability of well data
- Compile the End of Well Report, ad hoc reports requested by customers, and daily reports
- Professional interactions with customer representatives and personnel at the wellsite
- Maintain confidentiality of customer well data
- Identify opportunities to improve the service delivery process
- Participate in job risk analysis and continual improvement programs
- Maintain the required safety training

About you

- Operations Integrity
- PSD experience
- Field experience
- Full Australian Work Rights

What we offer

Feel free to contact

Simone Bache
Account manager
Brunel Energy Australia Perth

s.bache@brunel.net