

Fit-Out Estimator

Brunel is a leading provider of recruitment and staffing services for the Construction, Rail, Infrastructure, Mining and Oil & Gas industries. We are seeking an experienced Fit-Out Estimator to join an established Tier 2 Construction Contractor with an enviable track record across a range of projects in Perth and throughout WA. Due to their continued project wins and invitations to tender, they require a high-calibre professional to join their team immediately.

Summary

- Publication: PUB297909
- Market: Infrastructure
- Industry: Building & Construction
- Area of expertise: Project Management & Services
- Hours per week: 45
- Education level: Other
- Closing date: Tuesday, 23 March 2021

Job

- Reviewing incoming tender documents and estimating on selected projects with varying values
- Preparing and submitting tenders
- Preparing and submitting Expressions of Interest and proposals
- Inspecting project sites
- Obtaining quotations from subcontractors and suppliers
- Attending post-tender meetings with clients
- Generating project specific bills of quantities
- Compilation and review of estimates prior to submission and completing tender proposal documentation

About you

- A minimum of 5 years' experience in the Construction industry
- Degree qualified in Quantity Surveying or Civil Engineering
- A mix of project and estimating experience on projects up to $10 million
- Strong first principle estimating experience
- Strong exposure to fit-out projects in Perth
- Strong IT skills
- The ability to win tenders is essential

What we offer

This company offers a competitive salary package, mentorship from the senior management team and has a fantastic rate of staff retention.

Feel free to contact

Simon Hart
 Account manager
 Brunel Energy Australia Perth
s.hart@brunel.net
08 9429 5604