

Environmental / Regulatory Technician I

Currently looking to contract an Emissions Technician to support Delaware Basin operations in Carlsbad, NM for a major Oil & Gas operator.

Summary

- Publication: PUB298190
- Market: OilGasAndMining
- Industry: Oil & Gas
- Area of expertise: Health, Safety, Environmental & Quality
- Hours per week: 40
- Education level: Other
- Closing date: Saturday, 24 April 2021

Job

- General Maintenance
- Make sure that PMs are occurring monthly according to XTP OEM plan for air permits.
- Schedule the washing and replacing of catalytic converters as needed o

Calibrate O2 sensors on engines

- Insure proper working order of air/fuel controllers throughout different loads of operation
- Emission Testing o Test units once a month according to state portable analyzer procedures
- Build and update rolling totals of fuel, run hours and emissions
- Compile all other information and document for state permit requirements
- Maintain monometer and sample lines on all converter housings to take daily readings for state permits
- Install/Maintain correct labels for state permits on all units o When needed conduct third party state emissions compliance tests
- Install air/fuel controllers on units 25 HP+ as needed
- Diagnose and repair electrical equipment malfunctions
- Aide in troubleshooting, programming and finishing of the compressor electrical operating systems
- Aid in the calibration of screw compressors
- Setup, start, and program new equipment as needed LDAR
- Quarterly surveys on compressor facilities
- Ensure Title V permits are always in compliance

About you

- Candidates should have 3-5 experience with an oil and gas company in the SSHE and/or regulatory compliance field, preferably related to a construction or extractive industry, project or other international construction with environmental, regulatory, socioeconomic, and/or health aspects.
- Understand basic industry project construction principles and techniques (upstream petroleum industry preferred)

What we offer

- Why work through Brunel? We start with competitive rates, a comprehensive benefits package and a safe on-boarding process;
- With our industry insights and recruiter expertise, we are supporting projects and clients worldwide;
- With Brunel you gain experience and expertise, building on your skills and developing your career further.

Feel free to contact

Angela Tran

Account manager

Brunel USA - Houston

a.tran@brunel.net

+1-832-963-4148